NEWS OF LIBERTY BAPTIST CHURCH

Liberty Baptist Church adopted a $44,743.00 financial program at its business meeting last Sunday, with more than $11,000.00 of this amount going to world missions and benevolences.

This new program calls for a Minister of Music and Youth Worker to be added to the staff. The committee is searching out such a worker at present.

Sunday, Dec. 17, has been set as Stewardship-Enrollment Day, at which time the church plans to underwrite the 1962 program.

The pastor, O. D. Moore, who recently came to the Liberty pulpit, states that the prospects for the 1962 program looks good for the life of Liberty Baptists.

The regular schedule for the week of the 10th, includes the Sunday School Workers Council for Wednesday night, Dec. 13, at 6:45, with the Hour of Power coming at 7:30. The pastor will bring some message along the lines of the approaching Christmas season.

The pastor's subjects for this Sunday are:

11 A. M.: "The Silent Revolution."

7:30 P. M.: "The Forgotten Man."
